

Links and Resources

Sustainability Specialization

Sustainability Specialization at Azim Premji University

This newsletter is a compilation of independent projects undertaken by students of the MA Development Programme at Azim Premji University, under the Sustainability Specialization.

Learn more about the programme here

Online Course

Exploring Sustainability in the Indian Context

This course is designed for those seeking an integrated and interdisciplinary understanding of sustainability both in theory and practice.

Learn more about the course here

To be notified of the next session, leave your email here

For any queries, write to sustainability.online@apu.edu.in

Report

Sustainability in Higher Education for the Global South: A Conversation across Geographies and Disciplines

How can sustainability be integrated into undergraduate, postgraduate and professional courses? A workshop with the goal of exploring this question was organized by Azim Premji University in January 2015. The counterquestions, discussions and potential solutions raised during the workshop are presented in this paper.

Read the entire report here