

Applications invited from teachers for summer course

NT Bureau

Chennai, Mar 18:

Azim Premji University has announced that the third Philosophy of Education (PoE) Summer School will be held from 6 to 17 June.

Applications are invited from pre-service and in-service teacher educators, curriculum developers and those interested in these roles. Applicants could be from State institutions like the SCERT and DIETs, people teaching or developing curriculum for B Ed, M Ed and similar formal programmes in other institutions, a release said.

The focus of the programme is to develop an understanding of how and why PoE is essential for a practitioner of education and an exploration of possible ways in which PoE curriculum could be designed and taught.

The medium of instruction of this programme will be English. The last date for submission of applications is 1 April. Selected candidates will be intimated via email by 10 April. Participants will be provided boarding and lodging close to Azim Premji University and commute to and fro for the duration of the programme.
