Poetry Reading in Hindi by Rajesh Utsahi

Speaker:
Rajesh Utsahi

Date / Time:
September 17, 2013 - 3:45pm - 3:50pm

Venue:
204, Pixel B, Azim Premji University

Abstract:

As a part of the open course on 'Readings from Contemporary Hindi Poetry', there will be a reading of works by Rajesh Utsahi, our colleague in the URC. Those interested are invited to join. Rajesh will be reading his poems for about 40 minutes and a 20 minutes discussion will follow.

A Note on the Speaker:

Rajesh Utsahi has been writing for about 20 years and has published a collection in 2012 titled 'Woh Jo Shesh Hai (What remains)'. Before joining Azim Premji Foundation, he worked as the functional editor of 'Chakmak' – a children's magazine published by Eklavya for about 17 years.
