ABOUT THE TALK
The talk will focus on children’s roles in guiding us adults in our adult life courses. This educational role of children on adults is usually lost in the focus on children as objects of care and education. Valsiner will discuss the role of child(ful)ness as a resource for imagination and innovation, emphasizing the relevant feature of education of adults that de facto happens in any family.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER
Jaan Valsiner is Niels Bohr Professor of Cultural Psychology at Aalborg University, Denmark. He is the founding editor (1995) of the Sage journal, Culture & Psychology, and of The Oxford Handbook of Culture and Psychology (2012). He is also the Editor-in-Chief of Integrative Psychological and Behavioral Sciences (Springer, from 2007). In 1995 he was awarded the Alexander von Humboldt Prize in Germany for his interdisciplinary work on human development, and Senior Fulbright Lecturing Award in Brazil 1995-1997. He has been a visiting professor in Brazil, Japan, Australia, Estonia, Germany, Italy, United Kingdom, Luxembourg and the Netherlands.
